

Hon. Miroslav Lovric
United States Magistrate Judge
United States District Court
Northern District of New York
15 Henry Street
Binghamton, New York 13901

Re: Estate of Joseph P. King v. Ward, et al
Civil Case No.: 9:20-cv-1413

Dear Judge Lovric:

Responding to this honorable Court's directives of March 11, 2020 and March 16, 2020, Plaintiffs' counsel wish to apologize to the Court for not having filed until yesterday the Affidavit of Non-Service regarding Defendant Hal Meyers (attached hereto as Exhibit A). The aforesaid affidavit arrived in our offices on a timely basis in February, but it was not timely filed with the Court due to office error in not getting the affidavit to the attorneys of record.

Service on Defendant Meyers was attempted twice in January 2020 at his place of employment, Mid-State Correctional Facility. It appears, however, that Defendant Meyers has a supervisory role in the mental health counseling offices of a number of state correctional facilities and he was not physically working/present Mid-State Correctional Facility on the two days that service of process was attempted.

Pursuant to CPLR 308, Plaintiffs are now moving swiftly to perfect Substitute Service on Defendant Hal Meyers and respectfully request leave to do so. Plaintiffs will report back to the Court on or before March 31, 2021 with a status update on the Substitute Service.

Respectfully,

Douglas Scott Wiggins, Esq.

 He is a supervisor but doesn't work solely at this facility. He goes from facility to facility. He may be at this location on Friday. But I was told I'd be better off finding them at home. Haven't been able to find a home address.
